

Session 1, Pella

- 9.00-10.15 George Harinck, Opening
Eugene P. Heideman, Dominie Hendrik Peter Scholte: Estranged from his Colleagues
Emo Bos, Scholte's Vision of the Relationship of Church and State
- 10.15-10.45 Coffee Break
- 10.45-12.00 Susan Price Miller, A Portrait of the Dutch Artist Gerhard Hendrik Nollen
Jaap van Marle, Pella's Uniqueness
- 12.00-1.30 PM Lunch

Session 2, Civil War

- 1.30-3.00 Michael L. Swanson, From Wooden Shoes to Brogans: Klaas Zuidema and the American Civil War
Gerlof D. Homan, Abraham J. Muste: America's Premier Pacifist
Janet Sjaarda Sheeres, A Dutch Colony as Casualty of the Civil War (Tennessee)
- 3.00-3.30 Coffee Break
- 3.30-4.30 Marten C.P. Rustenburg, Holland Boys in the Union Army: Johannes Van Lente, Johannes Douma
Douglas Firth Anderson, William Vandever, "of Holland, not of Sweedish descent": Presbyterian, Congressman, General
- 5.30 Dinner
Ronald Rietveld, Title unknown

Session 3, World War I

- 9.30-10.30 George Harinck, Abraham Kuyper on War and America's Role in the World
Huug Vanden Dool, A Few Stories about Dutch-Americans and World War I
- 10.30-11.00 Coffee Break
- 11.00-12.00 Robert P. Schoone-Jongen, Loyalties in Conflict: Theodore F. Koch Confronts the First World War
James Dahm and Dorothy Van Kooten, Peoria, Iowa in WWI
- 12.00-1.30 PM Lunch

Session 4, Miscellanea

- 1.30-3.00 Babs Boter, "A Reflection of Holland Overseas": Mary Pos" visits to Dutch immigrant cultures in California and Michigan
Kenneth W. Bult, Why did South Holland resist urbanization?
Earl Wm. Kennedy, The Last "Christian Friend"? From Amsterdam to Pella: The Rise, Fall, and Restoration of the Maverick Rev. A. G. Zigeler (1833-1915)
- 3.00-3.30 Coffee Break

Session 5, World War II

- 3.30-5.00 Robert P. Swierenga, Holland and the Home Front
Bruce C. Bolinger, By Trial and Error: The Experience of a Dutch Escape Line in World War II
Cornelia B. Kennedy, "Packing underwear, cod liver oil, stockings..." Holland, Michigan, responds to Netherlands needs, 1945-1949

Session 5, World War II (continued)

9.00-10.00 Donald Sinnema, One Soldier's Experience of the Pacific War: The World War II Diaries of Sgt. Ernest Gerritsma, 1941-1945

Henry Aay, The Netherlands Information Bureau in the United States during World War II and its Aftermath

10.00-10.30 Coffee Break

Session 6, Vietnam War

10.30-12.00 Syl Gerritsma, The Moral Fog of War: Viet Nam through Cracked Reformed Glasses

David E. Zwart, Being Dutch American during the Vietnam War
President AADAS, Closure

12.00 Lunch